SPINNING YARNS

Why Visit America - MATTHEW BAKER

$33 - tpb - Allen & Unwin

Baker's short fiction takes on pressing issues like childcare, quality of life, democracy, and death, puts them on steroids, and blasts them into the future. Darkly innovative and defiant.

Remote Sympathy - CATHERINE CHIDGEY

$35 - pb - Victoria University Press

Catherine Chidgey's new novel returns to the Germany of The Wish Child with the same broad scope and deeply human understanding we've come to know from her.

Leave the World Behind - RUMAAN ALAM

$33 - tpb - Bloomsbury

Rumaan Alam's third novel is keenly attuned to the complexities of parenthood, race, and class. It explores how our closest bonds are reshaped - and new ones are forged - in moments of crisis.

Earthlings - SAYAKA MURATA

$33 - pb - Granta

Not for the faint-hearted. The latest from the Japanese sensation who brought us Convenience Store Woman deals with trauma and collective delusion in confronting and constantly surprising fashion.

Olga - BERNHARD SCHLINK

$35 - tpb - Weidenfeld & Nicolson

An orphan raised in a late 19th century Prussian village, Olga fights against prejudices to find her place in a world that sees her as second-best. A story of love and devotion from the author of The Reader.

Jack - MARILYNNE ROBINSON

$35 - tpb - Little, Brown

Marilynne Robinson returns to the world of Gilead with Jack, the latest in one of the great works of contemporary American fiction. A beautiful story of fraught romance.

Transcendent Kingdom - YAA GYASI

$37 - tpb - Viking Penguin

A deeply moving portrait of a Ghanaian family in Alabama, ravaged by depression, addiction and grief. Exquisitely written, this is an exceptionally powerful follow-up to Gyasi's phenomenal debut, Homegoing.

Dec

Luster - RAVEN LEILANI

$38 - tpb - Picador

Unemployed, homeless and embraced by the wife of her middle-aged boyfriend, Edie is that well-rounded, unlikeable female character. This debut novel is funny, whip-smart, and wonderfully mean spirited.

Stalingrad - VASILY GROSSMAN

$38 - pb - Vintage

Simply one of the greatest novels of the 20th century, translated for the first time into English. The scope, beauty and importance of Grossman's masterpiece can't be overstated.

Dec

Bestiary: A Novel - K-MING CHANG

$37 - tpb - Harvill Secker

A bewitching debut novel by poet K-Ming Chang that braids together three generations of Taiwanese American women; spotlighting migration, queer lineages, violent impulses and haunting myths.

The Fire of Joy - CLIVE JAMES (Ed)

$40 - tpb - Picador

Clive James read and loved poems so widely, The Fire of Joy is his final gift to the world - an anthology of some of the hundreds of poems he knew by heart, with short commentary on why they're worth sharing.

Home Body - RUPI KAUR

$29 - pb - Simon & Schuster

With the same rawness and passion her readers love, Kaur's new collection is anchored in the self, and what it is to live and love oneself in this world.

Goddess Muscle - KARLO MILA

$35 - pb - Huia

This long-anticipated new collection by breath-taking poet Karlo Mila is earnestly anchored in the present. Mila writes from the personal grounded in the political, skilfully and with generosity to both herself and her readers.

GENRE
IS NOT A DIRTY WORD

TAMSYN MUIR
Gideon the Ninth
$30 - pb - Tor
Harrow the Ninth
$50 - hb - Tor

Tamsyn Muir is a freaking genius, and the first two novels of her Locked Tomb trilogy - which chart the path of the Ninth House in a solar system of Necromancy and intrigue - bring me untold and exquisite joy, humour and excitement. 100% dark bliss.

Network Effect: A Murderbot Novel - MARTHA WELLS
$45 - hb - Tor

Murderbot: the most humane and joyous, cynical recluse in sci-fi for the last 25 years. Come for the gun fights, stay for the one-liners. Everyone needs the glee only Murderbot can bring.

This Is Not A Pipe - TARA BLACK
$28 - pb - Victoria University Press

Local cult artist Tara Black's stunning debut graphic novel. Literally about a woman with a pole through her arms. Unnerving, poetic and beautifully real.

The Thursday Murder Club - RICHARD OSMAN
$37 - tpb - Viking Penguin

Four unlikely pensioners team up together to investigate unsolved murders and find themselves thrust into their first live case. Warm, hilarious and compelling - a must read murder mystery.

Shaping the World: Sculpture from Prehistory to Now - ANTONY GORMLEY & MARTIN GAYFORD

$90 - hb - Thames & Hudson

Examining a rich variety of works, sculptor Antony Gormley and art critic/historian Martin Gayford survey the fundamental role sculpture plays in cultural development spanning human history. Featuring 300 illustrations.

Ralph Hotere – The Dark Is Light Enough: A Biographical Portrait - VINCENT O’SULLIVAN
$45 - tpb - Viking Penguin

Ralph Hotere (Te Aupōuri and Te Rarawa; 1931-2013) was one of Aotearoa’s most significant modern artists. At Hotere’s invitation, Vincent O’Sullivan has written a compelling portrait of the man and artist.

The 99% Invisible City: A Field Guide to the Hidden World of Everyday Design - ROMAN MARS

Dec

$45 - hb - Hachette

The wildly popular podcasters on design and architecture have produced a stunningly beautiful guide to the city behind the city, in all of its functional glory and accidental absurdity.

Railways Studios: How a Government Design Studio Helped Build New Zealand - PETER ALSOP et al (Eds)

$70 - hb - Te Papa Press

Celebrating the 100th anniversary of Railways Studios, the design studio of the New Zealand Railways. This wonderful illustrated history covers 65 years of advertising. A gorgeous time capsule of New Zealand life.

Humans - BRANDON STANTON

$50 - hb - Macmillan

After five years of travel, the creator of Humans of New York joins people of the world in conversation with readers. Ignoring borders, Brandon Stanton chronicles lives and shows us faces of the world in unique style.

Birds of New Zealand Ngā Manu O Aotearoa - MELISSA BOARDMAN

$30 - hb - HarperCollins

A beautifully illustrated compendium of New Zealand birds, each with their own collective noun.

A tussock of takahē? A hoon of kākā? A whistling of whio? Awesome!

NOTES ON MUSIC

Boy on Fire: The Young Nick Cave - MARK MORDUE

$45 - hb - HarperCollins

Across the ditch something dark and poetic was forged that would stand the test of time. 35 years in the making, the first volume of this definitive biography is about to grace your shelf. Music fans rejoice and prepare to be shaken and stirred.

Wagnerism: Art & Politics in the Shadow of Music – ALEX ROSS

$65 - hb - Farrar Straus Giroux

$45 - tpb - HarperCollins

tpb Jan

Alex Ross, renowned author of The Rest Is Noise, reveals how Richard Wagner became the proving ground for modern art and politics - an aesthetic war zone for beauty and violence.

Intimations: Six Essays - ZADIE SMITH

$16 - pb - Hamish Hamilton

“There will be many books written about the year 2020: historical, analytic, political and comprehensive accounts. This is not any of those - the year isn't half-way done. These are above all personal essays: small by definition, short by necessity.” - Zadie Smith

Crafted with Smith's usual sharp intelligence and wit, Intimations is a vital work for these times. - Tilly

Say Nothing: A True Story of Murder and Memory in Northern Ireland - PATRICK RADDEN KEEFE

$37 - tpb - Picador

Reading like the most addictive true crime podcast mixed with the best serious historical narrative, Keefe's book is a mystery around a missing person and a history of the Troubles. He takes as a starting point the 1972 disappearance of a widowed mother of 10. Despite the harrowing events and sad politics of modern Northern Ireland, there is pleasure to be had in this well told and engrossing story. Although I was a year late to this multi-award-winning non-fiction, it is my favourite read of 2020. - Adrian

Imagining Decolonisation

- ELKINGTON; JACKSON; KIDDLE; MERCIER; ROSS; SMEATON; THOMAS
